"Raining Blood"

Trapped in purgatory
A lifeless subject, alive
Awaiting reprisal
Death will be their acquittance

The sky is turning red
Return to power draws near
Fall into me, the sky's crimson tears
Abolish the rules made of stone
Piered from below, souls of my treacherous past

Betrayed by many, now ornaments dripping above

Awaiting the hour of reprisal
Your time slips away

Raining blood From a lacerated sky
Bleeding its horror
Creating my structure
Now shall I reign in blood!
