Cataract blinding your eyes
To the violent design
Regenerating impending genocide
It's the dawn of decay
Mark the end of your days
Just another lost casualty of the times

The wicked will feed the chaos
Control and rule disorder
Disintegration's multiplying
Till there is no more bloodline
A future of neverending
Insane civil disorder
Free yourself from the red dawn
The time has come

Death's head shattering
Blow to the throat
At the end of the rope
Degeneration that follows into the fire
In a world gone insane
No one else left to blame
Your just another part of the collective vile

The wicked will feed the chaos
Control and rule disorder
Disintegration's multiplying
Till there is no more bloodline
A future of neverending
Insane civil disorder
Free yourself from the red dawn
The time is now

[lead: king/hanneman/king/hanneman]

Era of total destruction has slowly begun
Yielding death none will survive
Order out of chaos the true will of the beast
A life of desolation

Ten bleeding hearts
One wicked mind

In spiritual sin
Their time is now

Era of total destruction has slowly begun
Yielding death none will survive
Order out of chaos the true will of the beast
A life of desolation

Ten bleeding hearts
One wicked mind
In spiritual sin
Their time is now

Famine, plagues, war and death
Scourges preceding the end
Death is your only savior

Ten bleeding hearts
One wicked mind
Bringing total annihilation
