[Intro:]

(And the situation I'm in right now really can't help)
(I had to let her go...)
(Rebeezza! )

[Verse 1:]

Changed mind to say at least
I use to break fast til it turns to beef
It use to be only yes to know his cheating
Now I don't go to far like I'm on a leash
You just a loop to my reset button
And I memorized it all so I regret nothing
Yea I fell for you but I damn show won't stay down
You had me boxed in to long it's time to break out

[Chorus:]

See ya touch feels great but I just can't break cause I know
All that you wanted is for me to take risk but I won't
My conscience keep telling me don't breath don't breathe
No cause your just to deep in love
Don't breath don't breath and u want me to drown but
I ain't gone let you pull me down
Said I ain't gone let you pull me down
No I ain't gone let you pull me down

[Verse 2:]

She said she love me but I ain't say it back cause
If I stated that then I may stay attached
And that's the last thing that a nigga needed
I kill that effing loop before I let the shit repeat Itself over again (myself over again)
A snail losing a shell could reveal how they pretend
To not care in pose as unsure
That's why I rock a shell cause if I lose it I'm yours

[Chorus:]

See ya touch feels great but I just can't break cause I know

My conscience keep telling me don't breath don't
breathe
No cause your just to deep in love
Don't breath don't breath and u want me to drown but
I ain't gone let you pull me down
Said I ain't gone let you pull me down
No I ain't gone let you pull me down
(I mean... I know it wasn't fair to her...)
(I felt like I was going to lose myself trying to find her)

[Verse 3:]

The other day I sent her flowers with a note attached
It read I really miss home so I'm going back
I know it's short notice so I'm really hoping that You not to mad and you could still pick up the phone and chat
It's ironic when I think about this shit
I mean not tryna lose you is the reason that I left My conscience said to hold my breath in
I'm flying but I couldn't stand to see you live with a lie
So I'm kissing you bye

[Chorus:]

See ya touch feels great but I just can't break cause I know
My conscience keep telling me don't breath don't
breathe
No cause your just to deep in love
Don't breath don't breath and u want me to drown but I gon' let you pull me down I ain't gone let you pull me down
No I ain't gone let you pull me down
