Manipulate means to mold in one's hands.
Manipulate means what some misunderstand.
An honest mistake that anyone could make because someone manipulated something that was not theirs.

The artist sees the beauty in the Earth's soft clay.
It would be nice to manipulate that way.
A father slithers into his daughter's bed.
Now she cuts herself and wishes herself dead.

And we'll all be happy manipulating time!
And we'll all be happy, honest safe and kind!

The puppet surely hates the pulling strings,
but hates the more that it's dependent on these things.
Fill the hole in me that came when I lost God.
Pull the cord on me. I'll be you talking doll.

And we'll all be happy, manipulating time!
And we'll all be happy, honest safe and kind!
And we'll all be happy, just you wait and see!
We'll kill all ignorance and end all poverty!
And we'll all be happy, spinning gold from thread!
And we'll all be happy when we've finally conquered death!

But, if you feel sad call heads of state up geeked out on cocaine.
The Vandals got a bad rap/rep: reforming while redecorating.
J. Edgar Faggot Sadist: political correct attack:
unlike killing valiant Panthers just for being Black.
