she needed lovin in the morning he kept asking her why to be held and comfort in her bravest time instead he gave her a feeling she should run n' hide without knowing direction or cause if you were my lovin kind you wouldnt ask me why
but your not my lovin kind you turn to her, you turn to me, you turn to her she woke up tired of runnin decided to stay all day to seek comfort in herself and when its time for her awakenin she'll do it alone without needing to say direction or cause
you turn to her, you turn to me, you turn to her.
