"Tesco Girl"

Oh my Tesco girl
Pretty foreign you are to me
Would you like to know yet more
About our fate or the ONT

How is your life ?
(is it) run away with me tonight
The crops may fail but you'd always be true
(I know) a beautiful Tesco girl

Are you happy now ?
With all the things that I never gave to you
Is it all just a come and go ?
And a lost Tesco girl

Farewell (my) Tesco girl
For I will never see you again
Another dream brings another face
And I will never know you
