Discompose
As a whole
A kindred gift
Barely possessed
Struggles with lack of control
Meet our mistakes, and put on display
Stone me like a martyr
Making it much harder
Time just might beat out my will to overcome

Envious
A simple touch
All of this longing
Hollowed out longings of chimera

Bend and fold
Reform the shape
Force into place
Can't uphold
Devouring the author weakening their order

Envious a simple touch
Hold tight
Why's this even questioned at all?
Why's this even questioned at all?

Turning around, crawling with vengeance,
Tempt me
Tearing around tearing it out
Frailty
Tearing around tearing it out
Frail
