My lapse in life I cannot lie
Compels to wonder why
My valid try is so far from divine

See you running (See you running)
The only way to fall is down

Strive to beat what eats within
Go ahead and drown the kid
Who thought could reach the rim
Of all the dreams once spoon fed
Hold you to up to the sky
Leave you there just one more time
My valid try is so far from divine

See you running (See you running)
The only way you've known how
See you running (See you running)
The only way you've known how

Back and forth I cannot take this
Forced euphoric fabrication
Held in place the hearth is weightless
Breaking down I need a facelift

Don't stare at the wall
Don't stare at the wall
Don't stare at the wall
Don't stare at the wall

See you running (See you running)
The only way you've known how
See you running (See you running)
The only way you've known how
See you running (See you running)
The only way you've known how
See you running
The only way to fall is down
