Wake me in the morning
And tell me
It's just a dream
It came to me
With no warning with no sign
Of what was to be
Of what will be?

Love me like a river
And throw me off my feet
You can carry me over
And make my heart believe

I've see your hesitation
And the way you choose your words
Time has passed us by
So until tomorrow
When the light washes through
I've built my fences!
'Cause of you

Love me like a river
And throw me off my feet
You can carry me over

Life leaves so many traces
You left your mark
In so many different phases
Through the seasons
The light and the dark
