i must be dreaming, live in a small world with dust over it.

i've got no feelings, wear thin shoes with glass under them

they made him lie down, keeping the ground warmwhile life drips on it they turned him right down, collected a life and said goodbye to it

don't make it anything specil, tucked in with words over
it

Luca Brasi's got nothing on you there's something wrong 'cos i can leave if i want to you don't stay long but i imagine your real invited you for a meal

i must be dreaming, the pictures are gone now i'm not sure of it

i've got no feelings. i turned down the sound now there's no more of it

click off gone
