and now i see that iâ€™ve been here before back when i asked the sea for more and i was swept back to the shore and now itâ€™s clear that all through the years it isnâ€™t you iâ€™ve feared but just our vessels coming near and if my vessel floats will you come aboard? would you give it all, or just what you can afford?

waves flood our ears weâ€™ve wandered here for years and now i see that my bodyâ€™s just a vessel

and should i see you at the junction i trust our vessels will know
