

Confession, The "Requiem"

Visit "Requiem" on MotoLyrics.com we stand together try to erase all of the pain that takes his place we cry out to you with words and vows they don't amount to what you went through they say the good they die young they say the wicked live too long I hope you're hearin' this in heaven

now that you're gone i hear a song sung to me ten angels strong it hurts to leave but at least you're free...

stay in my mind till it's my time and may you be there when I see the light something we found on hallowed ground your memory will never be put down...

they say the good they die young
they say the wicked live too long
I hope you're hearin' this in heaven
now that you're gone I hear a song
sung to me ten angels strong
it hurts to leave but at least you're free...

keep missin' you is all I do speak to me tell me how is the view... it hurts inside the city cries God you made a mistake that night... and I miss you, I miss you tonight and I miss you...(speak to me tell me how is the view)
and I miss you, I miss you tonight, and I miss you...(God you made a mistake that night) I miss you

Visit Confession, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.