Look at him Look at him, is that what they say when I walk by baby eyes meet in a haze lie to me lie to me, tell me it's true because I still want you Look at her look at her, is what I whisper as you walk by baby beautiful and pure sing to me sing to me you know that I will, do you love me still nothing me and nothing you we're just watching it fall through taking time but time is gone so I'll leave you with a song...

I'll run away, please come with me I've always wanted you to see if you and me, could somehow be there'd be nothing else I'd ever need keep fighting keep riding on...

all of it all of it a little more hey I want it all little lady I like the way you pray lie to me lie to me tell me you do because I must have you beautiful beautiful listen to me the drugs are gone baby I can see clearly lie to you lie to you never again so just, just take my hand

nothing me and nothing you we're just watching it fall
through
song...

I'll run away, please come with me
I've always wanted you to see
keep fighting keep riding on...

through
song...

I'll run away, please come with me
I've always wanted you to see
keep fighting keep riding on...
