Some people run
Just to save their life
Their memories fade in a bid to sooth their own minds
They feel no fear
But they, will taste regret
They do not know
Pain can lead to success

Lead the way
Just lead the way
Don't be a slave
Be the one to write your fate
Lead the way
Don't be a slave
Just lead the way
Be the one to write your fate

Some take a bow
But it's all a pose
They seek the limelight like an heir to a throne
They'll only tread
Where the rich have trod
The poor man knows
Sometimes the gamble pays off

Hey you won't, take a chance on life
Well I just want to say
You'll always break inside

Hey you won't, take a chance on me
Well I just want to say
You're too blind to see
