I died last night
Awake at last
Discovering a world of chances
The time is right
I feel the strive
I know I'll never be the same again

These blinding lights
Surrounding me
Fulfilling me with strength, I'm soaring
Once chance in life
I'm mesmerized I know I'll never be the same again

I need to fight my destiny (destiny)
How can I find the remedy? (remedy)
Mus break away from all insanity out there
The open road I found tonight
Leads me from my destiny

Stop stalling me
I'm breaking free
Untie my hands and take me flying
Take of my blinds
Embraced by life
My chance to never be the same again

I need to fight my destiny (destiny)
How can I find the remedy? (remedy)
Mus break away from all insanity out there
The open road I found tonight
Leads me from my destiny

(How many nights have I dreamt about this?)
How many days have I waited patiently?

I need to fight my destiny

How can I find the remedy?
Mus break away from all insanity out there
The open road I found tonight
I need to fight my destiny (destiny)
How can I find the remedy? (remedy)
Mus break away from all insanity out there
The open road I found tonight
Leads me from my destiny!
