I follow the rain

Walking in circles again

Rewinding

I can't believe that I fell

Guess I fooled me

Another place, another time

Different faces but it's the same old story

Will it ever change?

That picture frozen in the frame

I fight

I scream

I'm drowning in rage

My last farewell

I'm leaving this place

I gasp for air

Yet somehow I'm loosing this game

I follow the rain

Chasing a ghost once again

Pretending

Picturing life but it ends before me

Another face another time

Different places but it's the same old story

Will it ever change?

That picture frozen in the frame

I fight

I scream

I'm drowning in rage

My last farewell

I'm leaving this place

I gasp for air

Yet somehow I'm loosing this game

I follow the rain
Cover my eyes!
Weightless I fly
(I'm playing with fire, forgetting, denying)
Somewhere along the line
(I'm chaging, still, rising, stopped crawling in ashes)
This faith I must deny
(follow the rain now, follow the rain)

I fight
I scream
I'm drowning in rage
My last farewell
I'm leaving this place

I fight
I scream
I'm drowning in rage
My last farewell
I'm leaving this place
I gasp for air
Yet somehow I'm loosing this game
I follow the rain (I'm playing with fire, forgetting)
I follow the rain (I'm chaging, still, rising)
I've got to keep my self from drowning (forgetting, denying)
Enough now!
I'm tired of loosing this game
I follow the rain
