Summertime, it's fast to go
The leaves they fall, the wind it blows
Wintertime, we wait for snow
While we wait you should know

Don't you already know well how I love you so
And how I miss you so
Don't you already know?
Well I don't think so, no I don't think so; no

The lights were bright, I watched you glow
We sat that night to taste the snow
Looking back who could know
I never thought I'd let you go

Don't you already know well how I love you so
And how I miss you so
Don't you already know?
Well I don't think so, no I don't think so; no

C'mon, c'mon
We watched the snow
C'mon, c'mon
I watched you glow
I watched you glow
I watched you glow
I watched you glow
We touched the snow that's shaking like a snow globe

Don't you already know well how I love you so
And how I miss you so
Don't you already know?
Well I don't think so, no I don't think so; no

C'mon, c'mon
I watched you glow (I watched you)
C'mon, c'mon
We watched the snow (I need you)
C'mon, c'mon
I watched you glow (that's shaking like a snow globe)
