Can you feel the breath of the slavery
You feed the unborn mother of desire
She answers now
Greed answers now
She answers til your in the ground!

I am your witness
Face the man that I've become
I'll tell you truth that
You cannot digest my son

The puppets swarm the seed
Behold the prophecy
For this is more than conquering!

I can see you fear the reality
I can see lies in your eyes
I can see you feeding from the greed machine
If not you'll see it when you die

Everything you've ever dreamed
Everything you've ever known
And everything you'll ever become
It's ALL A LIE!
