I cannot stand
One more moment without you
Come on home for your birthday, love

When can you say
That you're loving me, babe
Come on home for your birthday, love

Feels like tonight gonna last forever
Wo-oah
Feels like tonight we gonna win it all

I will remember
From the first line
To the last time
When we stayed up, and we danced all night in the rain

What can I say?
Cause' I'll always need you
Come on home for your birthday, love

Feels like tonight's gonna last forever
Wo-oah
Feels like tonight we gonna win it all

Feels like tonight's gonna last forever
Wo-oah
Feels like tonight we gonna win it all

Feels like tonight's gonna last forever
Wo-oah
Feels like tonight we gonna win it all
