Verse

It was just the other night
In my world you became the light
My broken heart was sewn and threaded
But love was only treaded

Your hands were warm and soft
The touch made my soul burning hot
Your shimmering eyes made my knees weak
With you running through my mind all I do is thinkâ€¦

Chorus

In my world you are the sun
I'm starting to think you are the one
Whose love I can feel

Your smile, true and sincere
With you there's nothing that I fear
And now it's so real

Verse

With every single word you say
It makes me feel like its okay
And though you'll be gone for so long
I guess I'll have to be strong

You turn every sentence you say
Into a love song

Chorus

In my world you are the sun
I'm starting to think you are the one
Whose love I can feel

Your smile, true and sincere
With you there's nothing that I fear
And now it's so real

Bridge

And even though I'll miss you
And every little thing you do

It's the memories that will get me through
The day ohhhh ya ya ya ya

Chorus

In my world you are the sun
I'm starting to think you are the one
Whose love I can feel

Your smile, true and sincere
With you there's nothing that I fear
And now it's so real

Chorus

In my world you are the sun
And now our time has just begun
Your love I can feel

But when your not here
The only thing I can do is shed a tear
It's the love that makes my heart heal

Bridge

And even though I'll miss you
And every little thing you do

The day
