What they say
Never really mattered to me
I've been wrong
Open the door, time to move on

What has changed?
Same old story with a new name
I'm not scared, I've been here before

I guess, I thought you'd be there, I swear it
This is the last time that I close my eyes to it
Never again will we be, what we were
Maybe, I'll just walk away

Time thrown away, I didn't use it anyway
Been here for so long, now it's time to move on
Read between the lines, I can't make up my mind
Was this what we planned? Was this what we planned?

I guess, I thought you'd be there, I swear it
This is the last time that I close my eyes to it
Never again will we be, what we were
Maybe, I'll just walk away

Mercury falls, forgot how much I hate the fall
Still sitting by the phone, I hope that you don't call
It's alright now, we'll make it somehow
You'd think, we'd learned by now
Well, I guess, it goes to show

You're the answer to all my prayers, I swear it
This is the last time that I close my eyes to it
Never again will we be what we were
Maybe, I'll just walk away
