Me, me, myself and I
I guess, I'm scared you lied to me again
I guess as foolish as I am
Had a weakness for you
'Cause once you cared for me

We all know
That you are hurting deep inside
We can tell
Your life's regret is killing you

We never have the time
To straighten out the lines
Between you and I

And if, if I saw you die
I'm scared I would not cry
Because of what you said

We all know
That time's the only thing between us
We can tell
That only God can help us work it out
