I've heard all you're gonna say this time
I guess I've kind of lost my mind
I'll try to decide where to go from here

Someone must have left, turned out the light
My brain isn't working well tonight
Where should I go from here?

I'm gonna try
To do it right
I'm gonna try, let's go

Am I gonna then make it through today?
Please help me make it through today

By now all security seems gone
But that's okay, it won't be for long
I know I'll find my way
It just might not be today

It seems scary but I'll love it everyday
Won't be anything standing in my way
Where do I go from here?

I'm gonna try
To do it right
I'm gonna try, let's go

I'm gonna make it through today
With your help I'll make it through today
I know I'll make it through today
I'm gonna make it through today

Looking at the whole picture now
Can be nerve wracking at times
Just take it all one day at a time

Sometimes, I'll sit and think to much
But it never gets me anywhere
Results come from action

So you got to get out of your seat

You've got to go and try
You've got to go and try

I'm gonna try
To do it right
I'm gonna try, let's go

I'm gonna make it through today
With your help I'll make it through today
I know I'll make it through today
I'm gonna make it through today
