The art of being misunderstood
I never saw it cultivated quite as good
But I am not the sole survivor
And we don't care if we're alive or dead
As long as we'll be understood

Free us now
Cause everyone knows
Fear us now
Cause everyone knows

(Now) let's make this one thing understood
We'll take this further than the ones before us could
With all your lies dried up saliva
Truth will rise the sole survivor again
And let time disperse the memory of you

Free us now
Cause everyone knows
Fear us now
Cause everyone knows
