

Conquistadors, The "Greying Out"

Visit "Greying Out" on MotoLyrics.com

A lifespan of a day
Nothing ever stays the same
As brutal as it's true, you know
Time it ticks away
Its pendulum, we sway
It's all that we can do, you know

The lines across my face
Chiselled there by days
When everything was new, you know
I hope I'll be okay
'Though all I am should break
A soul divide

Greying out
(And) away
Nothing stays the same

The lines across my face
Deepen every day
Spelling out my tale, you know
Further down the line
Just footnotes set to rhyme
A lifetime full of memories

Greying out
(And) away
Nothing stays the same

How can I revert this change in me
Become myself
Become myself again
