Hunker down my belle
Cause you think I don't know
What goes on when lights go out tonight

The halo that you held
Like champions hold their belts
Cast 'neath the shadows for a dying day

To see it fading out
A light I claim my own
Blown out by, blown out by a friend

Tinkerbelle I know

The evil seeds he sowed
A loveless lover's love
Shot onto a muddy river's bank

A lesson for a life
Not to have another's wife
Blood shall not, blood shall not forget

Tinkerbelle I know

Justify my labour
Fruits of which I savour
It's time

Redeemin' time
