Every Mountain that we climb
Arguments we've gotten by
Are little victories so why
Climb them a second time

You should learn to let it go
Leave it on the side of the road
Throw it out and don't look back
Lighten up our heavy load

I don't wanna gooooo there, but I don't wanna leave

Chorus:

I don't wanna talk about it
Or stay mad and dwell on what we said
I've moved on, can't you get on and just get over it
I don't wanna stir up a mess, it's already swept behind the fence
I'm happy now, I don't care how, so don't tell me again
I don't wanna talk about it

I love the way you think you understand
I love the way that you think you can Come here and love me for who I am
Take my heart in your calloused hands

I wanna learn from our mistakes
Then I wanna watch them fade away

Chorus

I don't wanna talk about it
Whatever it is it's just the past
I don't wanna talk about it

Chorus

Every Mountain that we climb
Arguments we've gotten by
Are little victories so why
Climb them a second time
