You're so aggressive
Possessive
But I'm fine
But I'm fine

You are so pretty I swear, I'm the last one to say it You're so a sweetie, but there are too many vultures here
They surround you and they want to eat you
Now you wanna run now you wanna run
But leave without the vodka, leave without the vodka
I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try

Hey, my God, I'm in love; I'm in love, I'm in love, I'm in Hey, my God, I'm in love, I'm in love
With it all except you, except you

You seemed so pretty I swear, but now you look like a big shit
You are so ugly, the vultures will never eat your dick
I let you insist, and let me savour this
I'm gonna run now I'm gonna run
Leave me with my vodka, leave me with my vodka
You should try, you should try

You seemed so pretty I swear
But now you look like
Leave me with my vodka, leave me with my vodka
You should try, you should try right
