The sun is out and now, as we listen to the sound Of the dying radio
Tonight I made a wish, destroy me with a kiss Apocalypse in stereo

Summer's almost over, you'll be going back to school Don't leave me on my own, summer's never been so cold
So I'm yours for tonight, laying high above the lights
Just sit back to lax, and we'll watch the stars explode

It's hard to stay awake if you're asleep
I know I'll be gone, cuz this is not a love song (so tonight)
Tonight the sky that burns away my turn to say
I'll miss you (I'll miss you), I'll miss you (I'll miss you)

Ancient at ten, a static transmission Finds it's way into the sky
At this frequency, you know you'll be the end of me
Sorry but I'm too young to die

I could never make you happy, no we both know that I remember every word, you were screaming at my back
You said throw away your songs, they're selfish and absurd
Now they're lying in the trash, I still remember every word

It's hard to stay awake if you're asleep
I know I'll be gone, cuz this is not a love song (so
tonight)
Tonight the sky that burns away my turn to say
I'll miss you (I'll miss you), I'll miss you (I'll miss you)

You're breaking up, you're breaking up You're breaking up again

Burn a candle at both hands, Fire burns twice as bright Half as long left to live, sorry but I'm too young to die

It's hard to stay awake if you're asleep
I know I'll be gone, cuz this is not a love song (so
tonight)
Tonight the sky that burns away my turn to say
I'll miss you (I'll miss you), I'll miss you (I'll miss you)

Thats it, but i'm not so sure about the last line before the first chorus and the first line after the first chorus. Still, sing along!
