Down where it's seamy and I get a little notion
To turn off and get dreamy with a magic potion
Now you can't see me because I'm showing no emotion
But if you want to be me
It's going to take some devotion (Baby)

Chorus:

I've been living to bad effect
I've been driven a nervous wreck
But I've been given a place to rest
Down near death
Down in the depths
Of the hidden world
You've got to get on my level
In the hidden world
All you young daredevils
All you boys and girls
You've got to get on my level
Down in the depths of the hidden world

Now you watch me stagger on to another stage
You know I get run ragged before I earn my wage
And like a hungry maggot you know I like my meat
And like a careless faggot I don't care where I eat

Chorus:

I've been living to bad effect
I've been driven a nervous wreck
But I've been given a place to rest
Down near death
Down in the depths
Of the hidden world
You've got to get on my level
In the hidden world
All you young daredevils
All you boys and girls
So come on to my level
In the hidden world
The forbidden world

In the hidden world

You've got to get on my level
In the hidden world
All you young daredevils
Down in the depths
Down where Jesus wept
In the hidden world

You've got to get on my level
In the hidden world
All you young daredevils
All you boys and girls
In the hidden world
The forbidden world
Down in the hidden world
