"Safe And Sound"

I was a dead man walking, when you called me out by name
And took me by the arm.
You squeezed me in that narrow gate.
And gave me a brand new place to stay
Away from any harm.

Iâ€™m safe and sound.
Every time they come around you.
Hold me in your arms.
And all around.
People wanna tear us down.
But theyâ€™ll never take me away
When you came and lay your life down.

I never found good reasons.
To ever run away, when things just fall apart.
But when I stop doing as I please,
Working salvation out on my knees.
You never seem so far.
