Hush don't be so; please don't be ridiculous
I'm all you need; I can give you finer things
In my heart you'll find the truth,
All I want is to be close to you, close to you
All this time you've wanted more,
Can't you see I'm what you're looking for, looking for

I won't give up on you,
I need you to trust in me
I gave you love, all that I had, please don't forget me
I am yours forever

You've been so lost, everything you had is gone
I'd change it all, can't you see you're truly loved?
Give me all you got, give me everything, don't run away
Never looking back, moving on to the way things ought to be
In my heart you'll find the truth,
All I want is to be close to you, close to you

I won't give up on you,
I need you to trust in me
I gave you love, all that I had, please don't forget me
I am yours forever

In my heart you'll find the truth,
All I want is to be close to you, close to you

I won't give up on you,
I need you to trust in me
I gave you love, all that I had, please don't forget me
I am yours forever

I am the answer, I'm yours forever
I am the answer, the answer
