

The Silence Broken

"My Last Breath"

Set out on foot past the normalcy of life
Road map, realization for something more
We all hear the knocking but rarely answer doors
Being complacent is our greatest weakness

There's no reason to look for a way back
That's where you'll find your containment

Unfamiliar vacancy
Be sure to leave the lights on
Like a moth compelled toward the flame
Nothing's ever going to be the same
It's a wonder why I'm standing here
Let me say goodbye, no more wasting time
I've made up my mind

There's no reason to look for a way back
That's where you'll find your containment
Never feel you should follow
My footsteps in the sand
Never feel you should follow
My footsteps in the sand
Try release time
Never to follow
Try release time
Never to follow

Before I breathe my last breath
This is my last request
Take the time to write this down
I doubt I will be around

Like when the ones you loved aren't around
You should shut your eyes
Cause the ones you lost can be found
If you shut your eyes

When the ones you loved aren't around
You should shut your eyes
Cause the ones you lost can be found
If you shut your eyes

When the ones you loved aren't around
You should shut your eyes
Cause the ones you lost can be found
If you shut your eyes
