From the first day I saw you
I felt something inside me

I didn't know what it was
But now I know,
Girl it was you

You are my only thought
Through the days and nights
I tried so hard just
To get a smile from you
Only a smile

See how much I love you
And see how much
I care about you
And try to understand me
Because I love you
We had some good
Times together
But now they're all over
Because of me {2x}
I tried so many times
To forget you
But I returned to you
And I started to cry because
I couldn't live without you {2x}

See how much I love you
And see how much
I care about you
And try to understand me
Because I love you

See how much I love you
And see how much
I care about you
And try to understand me
Because I love you

See how much I love you

Baby I care about you
And try to understand me
Because I love you
