Wipe that sweat from your brow
I'll get you home safe and sound
I smile more when you around
Your so precious, wait did I mention you astound me

Your everything I ever could have asked for Your the girl that's to hard to ignore
If this isn't a dream, I think I'll never sleep
Cause I'm blessed with eyes so I can see

Wait for me
To find myself in you

I get chills when your around
Time stands still when you frown
When I heard you were in town
I'll count my blessing cause I'm expecting you to stick around

Do you remember me I was barely skating bye
Bottom of the shelf, but I still caught your eye
2 days and a week and I won't forget your face
Your apart of me like drums are to a bass
