You never let me down
When I was young
And I was always proud
To send all my love
Relax those eyes relax those toes
If you have to go then you have to know
You changed my life
With your advice
I won't think twice
You did it right

And you'll always be my hero
Anytime I stare up at the stars
I know your eyes
Will guide me through the night
And in the darkest of times
You'll always be my hero

You never let me down
When I was young
And I know your proud
Of what I've become
Relax those eyes relax those toes
If you have to go then you have to know
You changed my life
With your advice
I won't think twice
You did it right

You Know I won't forget you
Oh god I need the strength
Just so I can face you
With all the things that I learned
I learned them all from you
Your making me stay to true
And that's the best side of you
With all the songs that I've wrote
I lift this one to you
Because you make me strong
It took two years to write this song
