Hey you
I wanna talk about you
Yeah you
The game you're playing me through

Why do I keep walking?
I keep walking, I keep walking away
Why do I keep running?
I keep running, when all I want is to stay

And as I'm walking away
I'm fading to grey
There's something about your love
Now it makes me come back to stay
With you one more day
There's something about your love
x2
Something about your love
x5
Hey you
Ain't nothing else I can do
Yeah you
You got me breaking into

Why do I keep walking?
I keep walking, I keep walking away
Why do I keep running?
I keep running, when all I want is to stay

And as I'm walking away
I'm fading to grey
There's something about your love
Now it makes me come back to stay
With you one more day
There's something about your love

x2

Something about your love

x5

And as I'm walking away

I'm fading to grey

There's something about your love

Now it makes me come back to stay

With you one more day

There's something about your love
