I know that I'm just a friend
Not what you'd call a relation
I wonder what they would say
Regarding this situation
Oh yeah
[Ooo-ooo]
Looking forward 'til next time
[Ooo-ooo-ooo]
I promise that I won't drag my feet
Always looking for reasons to walk on your street
Oh yeah

It's been so long
It's been so long
You think you're on your own
Just taking it slow
But something always happens whenever we're together
It shows

I feel that I'm out of touch
Not very good at pretending
But when you sail in my path
I don't know what I'm defending
Oh yeah
[Ooo-ooo]
Looking forward 'til next time
[Ooo-ooo-ooo]
I might as well just admit defeat
It's the bridge to falling I always repeat
Oh yeah

It's been so long
It's been so long
You think you're on your own
Just taking it slow
But something always happens
Whenever we're together
It's been so long
It's been so long
You think you're on your own
Just taking it slow

But something always happens
Whenever we're together

It's been so long
[Been so long]
It feels like a false alarm
[It feels like a false alarm]
You think you're on your own
[You think you're on your own]
Just taking it slow
But something always happens
Whenever we're together

It's been so long
[Been so long]
It feels like a false alarm
[It feels like a false alarm]
You think you're on your own
[You think you're on your own]
Just taking it slow
But something always happens
Whenever we're together

[Whenever we're together]
It's been so long
[It's been so long]
[Been so long]
It feels like a false alarm
[It feels like a false alarm]
You think you're on your own
I take that it shows
But something always happens
Whenever we're together
It goes
