Falling from the sky
You're free, finally
You took me by surprise
Crashing down in front of me
But it's alright

You opened up your eyes
To show how they see
You opened up your heart
To show how it beats
You opened up your hands
To show how they can bleed
It's alright, It's okay
Everything will work out fine today
Because I understand

Spinning me around
I feel just how wide
Jumping up and down
I feel just how high
Turning up the sound-(turning up the sound) Loud!
It's okay, It's alright
Everything will work out fine tonight
Because I understand

I understand you
I understand
I understand you
I understand
I understand you

Time to waste I've burned through all I need
Spend some time hanging around with me
We don't even have to feel the same way
Coz everything will turn out fine today
I understand
I understand
I understand
I understand

I understand

I understand
I understand
I understand
I understand
I understand
I understand
I understand
