Fame and fortune don't interest me
Just as long as I have you
Notoriety wouldn't phase me
Just as long as I have you
As I have you
Just as long I have you
Wealth and success, I couldn't care less
Next to you they leave me unimpressed
Sex and fame seem pretty tame
Next to knowing that you feel the same
you feel the same
Next to knowing that you feel the same
Love and romance don't stand a chance
'Cause I'm drinking for the dance
Laying blame by any other name
Would sound as sweet
As once I have you at my feet
You'll feel the shame
I will know that you will feel the shame
Feel the shame
