There's a certain kind of feeling on the other side
It'll taunt you from a distance and it's hard to fight
I've got to walk and say I lost
But at least I tried

There's a certain way of dealing from the other side
If you want proof of it's existence, well that's hard to find
Less deep yeah, inside keeps
The other side

Telling everybody I know about it
Extraordinarily gifted
In tricking me to think it never existed
But I have the proof despite how it twists it
In lies

Telling everybody I know about the other side
