Sloppy Seconds
"The Kids Are All Drunk"

You don't like my friend
And I'm afraid that will be the end of you and me Cause I don't have the time
And I'm afraid if I did this time you'd ruin me
So I'm going to go where I'm wanted
I rather be where they care about me
Yeah I'm going back where I started
And we'll just see what you do without me

So don't ask me what the kids are doing
You don't fool me because you don't give a fuck
Don't ask me what the kids are doing
The kids are alright tonight
Because the kids are all drunk

Friends are for keeps
And I'm afraid all your talk is cheap
But not for me cause I bought all your lines
But they belong on old valentines you had bought for me

And I wouldn't listen to no one that couldn't see that you were mad about me
But it takes a bad lair to know one I know you won't be sad without me

So don't ask me what the kids are doing
You don't fool me because you don't give a fuck
don't ask me what the kids are doing
The kids are alright tonight
Because the kids are all drunk

Drinks all around
And let's all drink to being freedom bound
So fallow me and tire tire down the walls a never end flow of alcohol just shallow me

And I wouldn't listen to no one that couldn't see that you were mad about me
But it takes a bad lair to know one I know you won't be

sad without me

So don't ask me what the kids are doing
You don't fool me because you don't give a fuck on't ask me what the kids are doing
The kids are alright tonight
Because the kids are all drunk

So don't ask me what the kids are doing
You don't fool me because you don't give a fuck
don't ask me what the kids are doing
The kids are alright tonight
Because the kids are all drunk

Drunk as a skunk
The kids are alright
Because the kids are all drunk tonight

The kids are alright tonight
Because the kids are all drunk
