No need to wait
I'm heading off
I don't feel like I want you as part of life
How your eyes look sad and surprised
I don't care I'm leaving tonight

I've had enough
You've given up
I swore this would never happen again
You don't cause my lips to keel
Your touch has lost its appeal

I trusted you in my arms
I carried you with my heart
It's criminal not to feel at all
I'm sorry but you've left it too late

We can't keep holding on
We're low on luck and out of time
I can't keep holding on
It's unmistakable we are incapable of love

I've had enough
You've given up
I don't feel like I want you as part of life
You held control all the time
No longer there by my side

I trusted you in my arms
I carried you with my heart
It's criminal not to feel at all
I'm sorry but you've left it too late

We can't keep holding on
We're low on luck and out of time
I can't keep holding on for you to one day change your mind
We can't keep holding on
We're low on luck and out of time
I can't keep holding on
It's unmistakable we are incapable of love

It's hopeless you don't help things
Your kiss could suck the life out of anything
It's over
You broke this Lips were shaking
Don't feel we connect
I trusted you in my arms
I carried you with my heart
It's criminal not to feel at all
I'm sorry but you've left it too late

We can't keep holding on
We're low on luck and out of time
I can't keep holding on for you to one day change your
mind
We can't keep holding on
We're low on luck and out of time
I can't keep holding on
It's unmistakable we are incapable of love
