as he sits on the moor
with his new found friend who had shown him the way to bow out at the end with a dignity only a murder can bring with sweet violation that versatile thing

please believe me when i say this is how it has to end this is easy on us all
well easier than other ways
sleep and not to wake again see this through and leave my friend tears will come and i will end while i hope you all miss me and weep at my grave i imagine you'll pray some and give hope to the brave to the ones who have loved me and cared for me and who die when i tell them i just had to go
