Light will pour, out of your eyes
Down into, a field of spies
The grass is green, the sky is blue
All the sun, bullies the moon

[Chorus]

But I will make you see, that you belong to me
Stick me to you, nature needs no glue
Always be true

I would never, call you a pig
You are clever, and he is not
The lean-in time, came way too fast
I want you, to collapse

(Chorus) 1x

Thinking, drinking, sinking feeling.

You said watch, that romantic film
But who plays me? And who plays you?
Are you the one, who gets the girl?
Or are you the one, who ends up dead?

[Chorus 2]

But I will make you see, that you belong to me
Stick me to you, nature needs no glue
I could hold you tighter, and I could make you lighter
Than the air that you've been breathin
I know he'll say don't leave him
While the cannons are firing and the wall outside's expiring
I've started making plans
So come on give me a chance
Always be true..

Thinking, drinking, sinking feeling..
