Rain, rain, go away
Leave me here alone again
Where weary eyes and hollis tales play
Heavy on my mind

Rain, rain, don't dismay
Come back on a better day
Where weary eyes and hollis tales play
I've left them all behind

Some say I'm a fool
And see me on a beggar's stool
But all my truths are lied
All my secrets have been told

Rain, rain go away
Come back on a better day
When all my lies are gone and
All my burdens have been sold
