

Coral, The

"Walking In The Winter"

Visit "Walking In The Winter" on MotoLyrics.com

We went walking in the winter
It was the coldest time of year
It's where I handed you a letter
You turned around, I dissapeared

It said someday I'll find my way
and we'll go walking in the winter

It's so hard to make a living
When the world is so unkind
But it's not something that you're given It's something that you've got to find

It said someday I'll find my way
and we'll go walking in the winter

and it's okay to close your eyes Those silver sailing ships go sailing by It's all in your mind, It's gonna be alright
This time

Seasons change in to summer Fires burning in the dark I hope sometimes you read my letter and know I had to play my part

It said someday I'll find my way
and we'll go walking in the winter
and we'll go walking in the winter
and we'll go walking in the winter

Visit Coral, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.