Last night I got wound up tight again
I started a fight with my best friend
Woke up with my clothes still on
And my head still hurts and my money is all gone
Baby look what you're leaving done to me

Aint been to work in a week or two
My boss called and he said that's not like you
Everything is wrong wrong which once was right
I sleep all day and I walk all night
Baby look what you're leaving done to me

Look what you're leaving done to me
There's no resemblance to the man I used to be

Hey baby wont ya come on home tonight
I need your loving arms to hold me tight
Oh without your love I'm half a man
Going nowhere, got no plan
Baby look what you're leaving done to me

Look what you're leaving done to me
There's no resemblance to the man I used to be
