"COUNTDOWN"

Get up in the morning sun is shinin
Grab my telephone the heat is rising
Countdown is just beginning
The thought has got me grinning
My girls already callin start the pre-game
My boys already fallin' they'll do the same
We'll melt into the summer
This day won't be a bummer

Ladies

Let's make a pact I know you feel me
(We feel you)

Fellas

We got your back
I know you feel me! ohh

One

Make sure we all know your name

Two

Make sure you got more game

Three

We're gonna be best of friends

Spread the love countdown and begin

Four

Never give up the secret

Five

Always independent

Six

Everybody fall in

Spread the love countdown and begin

Never be aggressive it's time to play

Never get obsessive that's not ok

So always have fun work it

Don't try to be so perfect

Get up on your feet and move along

This will guarantee the day will go on

Don't be like all the haters

Who act like they are fakers

Ladies

Let's make a pact I know you feel me

(We feel you)
Fellas
We got your back
I know you feel me

Make sure we all know your name

We're gonna be best of friends
Spread the love countdown and begin
Four
Five
When the moon starts to hide
We're winding down
The night has said goodbye
All the smiles on our faces
Will be replaced as we start the countdown again!
