Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love

Think of her think of me think about us since the end come to see
Iâ€™m tryin to strumm you like guitars on this beat
And can sit around and chikakablaz asplz
Plus you got a man but he ain't quite me
The type of man who try to give you what you need An he wanna know where you are were you be where u going where you stay where you subject to be
If I was him I wouldn't even need I would trust you When you say that you are were you be
See him the type of nigga thatâ€™s hella cheap
Take his girl on a date and they go to MC E D's
See I'am the type that triesâ€™s to stab in the G
Try to take you out to see things and occasionally creep Yeah your man is doing things that I can't really see Donâ€™t sound too good it sound tainted to me

Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love

How many years does it take for a record to blow
I mean how man licks it took for my OOOH
Spend all your cash flow cause she was so out cold
Scandalous cause she loves scandals
To much chick for that dick she couldn't handle that Itâ€™s the same taintedlove in the music business People they lose there brains just to get up in this Lets be a star for a day everything in life is just okay People say things they don't really wanna say HEY but itâ€™s okay
Cause youâ€™re a star for the day
People will smile at you when they really wanna frown
Well thatâ€™s just the way tainted folk get down Just keep it real and well see when the situation is tainted
Love is always free

Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
Yeah SV tainted one and only check it out

You said you love me but is it really real would you Fix me green tea if I am feeling ILL
Could you give me a back rub to soothe after a long day?
Dinner by candle light but your the main entrÃ©e
And if so I'd do the same with other treats to give you Trailing raised pedals from your door to beneath your pillow
With a bucket of champagne on your nightstand
Experience with sum one like you in my life span

Real love everybody wants a real love someone to trust in you
Everybody needs love that's real
I would never want nothing tainted Wait a minute would you feel Faded if your love was tainted TRUE
I know true loves hard to find just let it find you for real
If you found love than keep it keeps love from being
And you'll be all right
And you'll be all right

Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
Real love true love tainted love
